

Lead with Purpose. Leave a Legacy.

A coaching approach to leadership empowers your team to become more inspired, agile and effective.

CoachRICE: A Leadership Coaching Program is a 60-hour, ICF-accredited program that helps develop and expand leadership coaching skills.

CoachRICE uses a variety of teaching methodologies to give a practical coaching skillset combined with the theoretical academic standards of Rice University.

Application deadline is Nov. 1. Those accepted into the program will receive notification by Nov. 15.

Visit glasscock.rice.edu/CoachRICE and apply today!

- Tailor your CoachRICE experience to the industry of your choice and learn how to develop your personal leadership skills while supporting the leadership development of others.
- Establish yourself as an expert in leadership coaching and assist high-level employees make decisions that benefit the entire organization.
- Earn a Rice Certificate of Achievement and the 60 hours of coach-specific training required for ICF's Associate Certified Coach (ACC) application.
- Program logistics on reverse.

DOERR SUSANNE M. Glasscock School of CONTINUING STUDIES

Tuition: $5,750

Tuition includes:

- Emotional intelligence assessment (EQ-I 2.0) and one-on-one coaching session
- Instruction by ICF Certified instructors who are experts in distinct areas of leadership and coaching
- Rigorous and experiential curriculum at one of the top academic institutions in the world
- Five individual observation reports on coaching progress

The tuition does not include the cost of textbooks (an estimate of $200). A reading syllabus will be provided to accepted applicants of the program.

Upon acceptance, 50 percent of the tuition is due by Nov. 22 to secure your space in the CoachRICE cohort. Full payment must be received by Dec. 15.

This program is divided into four modules. Each module is comprised of 12 classroom hours and three hours of pre-class assignments. Modules are delivered through a combination of face-to-face instruction, presentations, discussions, dyadic exercises, fishbowls and other interactive methods and independent studies. All modules are required for completion, including all pre-class hours. The program is scheduled over a period of four months. Classes will take place on the Rice University campus. Breakfast and lunch provided on Fridays.

Total Hours: 48 classroom instruction + 12 asynchronous (self-study) = 60 coach-specific training

Introduction to Coaching

Module Dates: Thursday, Jan. 25, 1-5 p.m. and Friday, Jan. 26, 8:30 a.m.-5 p.m.

Introduction to Coaching covers an in-depth overview of the practice of coaching. Topics include ethics, core competencies, roles clarifications and basic coaching framework.

Goal Focused Coaching

Module Dates: Thursday, Feb.22, 1-5 p.m. and Friday, Feb. 23, 8:30 a.m.-5 p.m.

This module focuses on the introduction of goals to the coaching engagement. This includes practices for supporting client movement toward a desirable outcome.

Leadership Coaching

Module Dates: Thursday, March 29, 1-5 p.m. and Friday, March 30, 8:30 a.m.-5 p.m.

This module addresses leadership as it relates to coaching and the coach. Basic principles of emotional intelligence and engagement are covered.

Inclusion Practices in Coaching

Module Dates: Thursday, May 3, 1-5 p.m. and Friday, May 4, 8:30 a.m.-5 p.m.

Inclusion Practices in Coaching takes the coaching practice to a deeper level of focusing on blind spots and inclusive practices and is intended to heighten diversity awareness in both the coach and client.

Apply today at glasscock.rice.edu/coachRICE.